

WEEK FIVE - FINALE

Grey Matter

Sept 27 & 28, 2014

Pastor Harry Kuehl

If your life were a movie, would anyone line up to see it? How can you make the story of God in your life a classic? It starts with the little decisions you make every day.

STUDY QUESTIONS

1. What are your top three favorite movies?

Why are they your favorites?

What is common to all three storylines?

2. As we finish this series on the Pentateuch, what are the main takeaways for you personally?

If someone were to ask you why we're here on the planet, what would you say?

3. How does Deuteronomy 30:11-20 sum up the last five weeks of study?

What does verse 11 surprisingly assure us of?

What does verse 14 further guarantee? What is our part to play?

4. What did Pastor Harry say were the three things you need to have for the story of God in your life to play out well?

- 2.
- 3.

5. Why do you think we are often content with a comfortable life of mediocrity?

Does Psalm 148 suggest an ordinary effort to display the story of God in your life is acceptable?

6. If your life were made into a movie, what would your character want more than anything else and what would he or she be willing to do — no matter what — to achieve it?

7. Author Donald Miller wrote: "Once you live a good story, you get a taste for a kind of meaning in life, and you can't go back to being normal; you can't go back to meaningless scenes stitched together by the forgettable thread of wasted time." What did he mean by this? Do you agree?

Personal Meditation: Author and pastor John Piper wrote: "But whatever you do, find the God-centered, Christ-exalting, Bible-saturated passion of your life, and find your way to say it and live for it and die for it. And you will make a difference that lasts. You will not waste your life." This week, spend some time prayerfully considering what your life's greatest pursuit is, what your opposition is, and to what degree God is the Director of your life story.

Memorize Deuteronomy 30:20 — "You can make this choice by loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and committing yourself firmly to him. This is the key to your life." (NLT)
